

PREPARING YOUTH
FOR THE WORLD
EMPATHY, UNDERSTANDING, RESPECT

Envoys Field Staff

Selected candidates will perform effectively in each of these areas:

- Leading groups of students (aged 14-18) through urban and rural contexts
- Facilitating discussions and engaging students in learning about their surroundings
- Managing risks and following procedures to maintain student health, safety, and security
- Problem-solving for travel changes and activity variations

Language skills, wilderness first aid training, and a background in experiential education are highly valued for this work.

Leaders will undergo training at our offices in Cambridge, MA or Bogota, Colombia, work with students through our online learning platform, and lead groups to a range of domestic and international destinations. Programs range from 8-14 days in length, and are run throughout the year.

2017/18 destinations include:

USA:

Boston, Denver, Miami, NYC, San Francisco, Tucson, Washington DC

International:

Argentina, Brazil, Canada, China, Colombia, Cuba, Germany, Guadeloupe, Guatemala, Japan, Morocco, Panama, Sri Lanka, South Africa, South Korea, United Kingdom

Applications begin online at envoys.com/field