

Mission: To empower youth and families in rural Uganda through education and enterprise development.

INTO YOUR HANDS AFRICA INTERNSHIP DESCRIPTION

Title: STRATEGIC PARTNERSHIPS AND EVENTS INTERN

Into Your Hands-Africa is an international nonprofit organization that seeks to empower rural Uganda through education and enterprise development. Our foundational belief is that education and enterprise are intertwined. Program success and sustainability cannot be found without the other. For 19 years, Into Your Hands-Africa has been working with students, families and communities in rural Midwestern Uganda, supporting community empowerment and economic sustainability through advances in education and enterprise programs. We send students to school, create local leaders and teach practical skills intertwined with sustainable enterprise projects as requested by the communities we serve.

GENERAL SUMMARY OF DUTIES: The Strategic Partnerships and Events Intern position is an unpaid internship program with possible opportunities for credit. Under the immediate supervision of the Executive Director, the intern will assist in the creation and management of an effective corporate sponsorship or volunteer program. The fellow will also spearhead all aspects of the organization's annual event including the development of materials, donor lists, in-kind solicitations, vendors and general administration work.
