

Global Education Field Staff -- Colorado

Energy and Sustainability Background

Synopsis

As a member of Envoys field staff, you will work directly with traveling students and teachers to lead our program in Colorado. This program requires subject-specific knowledge and experience around issues of energy policy, grassroots organizing and advocacy, and environmental stewardship. During this program, students visit key institutions and meet with stakeholders across the Front Range. Program leaders use an inquiry-based approach to learning about the topic and guiding students through a critical analysis of their own role in the larger picture.

About Envoys

Envoys blends online courses with focused international travel to develop youth into empathic global leaders. We work closely with schools and families to create innovative learning experiences around the world. For more information, please see www.envoys.com

Key Attributes

The selected candidate will perform effectively in each of these areas:

- Leading groups of students (aged 14-18) through urban and rural contexts
- Facilitating discussions and engaging students in learning about their surroundings
- Managing risks and following procedures to maintain student health, safety, and security
- Problem-solving for travel changes and activity variations
- Coordinate travel logistics and services with local providers

Minimum Qualifications

- Belief in Envoys' mission to develop empathic global leaders
- Enjoyment of traveling and working with people from different cultural backgrounds
- Ability to work effectively as a member of team to reach a common goal
- Outgoing, service-oriented personality and ability to handle multiple responsibilities
- Experience and knowledge in the energy and environment sectors in Colorado
- Work experience holding position of responsibility for youth
- Basic Medical Training (CPR/First Aid)

Desired Qualifications

- Professional teaching experience in field relevant to global citizenship education
- Experience living/traveling in Envoys travel destinations
- Experience leading groups of students and teachers on travel programs
- Advanced medical training (WFA, WFR, EMT, etc.) strongly desired

Training and Compensation

Selected candidates must complete online and in-person trainings as assigned by Envoys. Candidates will be paid at a competitive daily rate for days spent in the field.

Program Dates

March 12th to March 18th, 2018

Application Procedures

The procedure begins at: www.envoys.com/field-staff